It is agreed these terms and conditions are accepted in full upon submitting an application to use Long Asia's brokerage services.

1.3 All references to the plural herein shall also mean the singular and to the singular shall also mean the plural unless the context otherwise requires.

1.4 The Agreement governs the provision of Long Asia's services to the Client and shall govern all dealings between Long Asia and the Client with respect to such services.

2. COMMENCEMENT

2.1 By submitting a Long Asia Account application form to Long Asia, the Client agrees to be bound by the terms of this Agreement which may be amended and/or restated from time to time.

2.2 These terms and conditions, including the High-Risk Investment Notice and any attached notices or schedules which may be amended and/or restated from time to time, form the Agreement between Long Asia and the Client (collectively, the "Agreement").

2.3 This Agreement comes into effect upon acceptance of the Client's application by Long Asia at our office or processing centre and shall supersede any previous agreement on the same subject matter.

2.4 Long Asia will notify the Client of such acceptance in writing or by electronic communication. Long Asia may vary or amend the terms of this Agreement at any time upon notice to you. You will be deemed to have accepted any such amendment if you continue to use the services.

2.5 Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Long Asia's obligations under this Agreement are expressly conditioned on the Client paying Long Asia the minimum deposit before the Client executes the first transaction. See Section 6.1 on Client Money.

2.6 The minimum initial deposit is USD$100.

2.7 The Agreement shall be effective from the day described in this Section 2.3 until its termination as described in Sections 15.4 and 15.5, or in the Event of Default (see Section 18).

3. ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

3.1 You acknowledge that you have read, understood, and accepted Long Asia's Terms and Conditions, including the Privacy Policy, the Trading Execution Risks, and the Schedule A ("High-Risk Investment Notice"), as well as any information (legal or otherwise) posted on the Company's website, which may be amended by Long Asia from time to time.

3.2 The Client acknowledges that the primary business of Long Asia NZ Limited is that of a brokerage service and the official language is English.

4. SERVICES

4.1 Long Asia will offer execution-only brokerage services, under a straight-through processing method (STP), to the Client in relation to transactions in rolling spot foreign exchange contracts and such additional services as Long Asia may agree from time to time.

4.2 Long Asia will not advise the Client on the merits or suitability of any transaction entered into pursuant to this Agreement. Long Asia will not manage nor monitor the Client's investments. Long Asia's execution of any order on the Client's behalf does not in any way imply any approval or recommendation of that transaction.

Although Long Asia is not required to explain to the Client any risks that may arise because of a particular transaction, Long Asia has set out various risk disclosures attached to this Agreement for the Client's information.

4.3 The counterparty to the Client's transactions will be Long Asia. The Client will enter each transaction with Long Asia as principal and not as agent on behalf of someone else unless otherwise agreed in writing by Long Asia. Long Asia shall be responsible to the Client alone and shall have no duties or obligations to the Client's underlying clients (if any).

4.4 Nothing in this Section shall limit Long Asia's ability to offer principal-to-principal or principal-to-agent transactions.

4.5 Long Asia will not unless specifically agreed to in writing with the Client, be acting in a fiduciary capacity or provide any personal recommendation to the Client in respect of, nor provide any advice to the Client on the merits of, any transaction in financial instruments. Accordingly, you the Client should make your own assessment of any transaction that you are considering in the light of your own objectives and circumstances, including but not limited to, the possible risks and benefits of entering that transaction. The Client should not rely on any information, proposal, or other communication from Long Asia as being a recommendation or advice in relation to that transaction.

4.6 Long Asia may offer other services from time to time that is governed by different or additional terms and conditions. The services offered hereunder are subject to any disclosures or disclaimers found within the Long Asia website.

4.7 Long Asia reserves the right to modify or discontinue, temporarily or permanently, a service (or any part thereof) with or without notice. The Client agrees that Long Asia will not be liable to the Client or to any third party for any modification, suspension, or discontinuance of service.

5. CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

5.1 Long Asia and our affiliates provide services in respect of a wide range of investment-related activities to many different clients, some of which Long Asia or another Long Asia affiliated entity may have an interest, relationship, or arrangement that is material in relation to a transaction effected with or for the Client (or the investment that is the subject of the transaction) or that could give rise to a conflict of interest.

5.2 Long Asia shall not be obliged to disclose to the Client or take into consideration any fact, matter or finding that might involve a breach of duty or confidence to any other person, or that comes to the notice of any of our directors, officers, employees or agents but does not come to the actual notice of the individual or individuals dealing with the Client.

6. CLIENT MONEY

6.1 All funds via Wire Transfer to Long Asia should be made payable to Long Asia. There are other funding methods that can be accessed via the Member's Area.

6.2 When making a transfer, funds should reference the Client's name and account number.

6.3 The Client agrees and acknowledges that full title to and ownership of all funds that have been transferred to Long Asia by the Client or otherwise passed to Long Asia for the purpose of securing or otherwise covering the Client's present or future, actual or contingent or prospective obligations, and that such funds do not constitute and shall not at any time be deemed to constitute Client Money. The Client will rank as a general creditor of Long Asia.

6.4 Long Asia may need to pass money received from the Client to a third party (e.g. a market, intermediate broker, OTC counterparty or clearing house) to hold or control in order to effect a transaction through or with that person or to satisfy the Client's obligation to provide collateral (e.g. Initial Margin requirement) in respect of a transaction. Long Asia has no responsibility for any acts or omissions of any third party to whom we pass money received from the Client.

6.5 The third party to whom Long Asia passes money may hold it in an omnibus account and it may not be possible to separate it from Long Asia's money, or the third party's money. In the event of the insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that third party, Long Asia will only have an unsecured claim against the third party on behalf of the Client and other clients, and the Client will be exposed to the risk that the money received by Long Asia from the third party is insufficient to satisfy the claims of the Client and all other clients with claims in respect of the relevant account.

6.6 Long Asia may hold Client Money on the Client's behalf outside the Australasian region. The legal and regulatory regime applying to any such bank or person will be different from that of the Client's country of residence and in the event of insolvency or any other analogous proceedings in relation to that bank or person, the Client's money may be treated differently from the treatment which would apply if the money was held with a bank in an account in the Client's country of residence. Long Asia will not be liable for the insolvency, acts or omissions of any third party referred to in this Section.

6.7 The Client agrees that Long Asia may cease to treat the Client's money as Client Money if there has been no movement on the account balance for six (6) years. Long Asia shall write to you at your last known email informing you that we will no longer treat the balance as Client Money unless you make a claim in twenty-eight (28) days.

6.8 The Client acknowledges and agrees that Long Asia will not pay interest on Client Money or any other unencumbered funds. The Client expressly waives any entitlement to interest under the Client Money rules or otherwise. Long Asia is not responsible for the solvency, acts or omissions of any bank or other third party with which Client Money is held.

6.9 You the Client must inform Long Asia of any uncredited funds and/or unreceived balance within six (6) months of remitting the funds, failing which, you shall waive your right to ownership of the funds.

7. COMMISSIONS, CHARGES AND OTHER COSTS

7.1 The Client shall pay to Long Asia such fees and charges as notified by Long Asia to the Client. These will include charges in respect of automatic rollover of the open positions pursuant to Section 26.

7.2 The Client is responsible for the payment of any other charges that may be incurred as a result of the provision of services to the Client, including commissions, charges and other costs.

7.3 Long Asia may vary commissions, charges and other costs from time to time without prior written notice to the Client. Changes in commissions, charges and other costs posted on the website shall be considered due notice.

7.4 Long Asia may pay or receive fees, commissions, or non-monetary benefits to or from our affiliates or other third parties where permitted. Long Asia may pay a fee or commission to any third party who introduces business to the Company. Long Asia is not required to provide a separate disclosure of the essential arrangements related to any such fee or commission.

7.5 The Client shall pay a transfer fee, as determined by Long Asia, if the Client instructs Long Asia to transfer open positions, moneys, and/or property relating to the Client's account to another institution.

7.6 All fees and charges are due and payable immediately. Any sums due to Long Asia pursuant to this Agreement may be deducted by Long Asia from the proceeds of any transaction or debited from the Client's account with Long Asia. In the event of late payment by the Client, overdue amounts shall bear interest at three percent (3%) per month over the base rate of Long Asia (or such lesser amount as may be permitted by Applicable Regulations).

7.7 All payments by the Client to Long Asia under this Agreement for any fees due hereunder will be exclusive of any sales, use, service, value added or withholding taxes, or any other levy, tariff, duty or tax of any kind whatsoever imposed by any governmental authority with respect to the services rendered or expenses incurred by Long Asia hereunder (other than a tax imposed upon Long Asia's income). The Client shall pay, within fifteen (15) days of receipt of the applicable Long Asia invoice(s), any such tax whenever such tax is imposed by a governmental authority.

7.8 The Client shall pay all expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and disbursements, reasonably incurred by Long Asia in endeavouring to collect any amounts payable hereunder that are not paid when due.

7.9 The Client may enter Limited Power of Attorney agreements with third parties to allow them to trade on the Client's behalf. Long Asia will not be responsible for any losses arising from such agreements.

7.10 In addition to Long Asia's commissions and charges, there may be certain taxes and costs which are not paid through or imposed by Long Asia.

7.11 Although investing in forex and CFDs does not involve taking physical delivery of the underlying financial instrument, independent tax advice should be sought, if necessary, to establish whether the Client is subject to any tax, including stamp duty.

7.12 The Client shall be solely responsible for all filings, tax returns, and reports on any transactions which should be made to any relevant authority, whether governmental or otherwise, and for payment of all taxes (including but not limited to any transfer or value-added taxes), arising out of or in connection with any transaction.

8. CURRENCY FLUCTUATIONS

8.1 If the Client enters into any currency transaction: i. any profit or loss arising from fluctuations in the exchange rate affecting such currency will be entirely for the Client's account which the Client bears all risk; ii. all initial and subsequent deposits for Margin purposes shall be made in the currency of the Client's account, in such amounts as Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion require; and iii. Long Asia is authorized to convert funds in the Client's account for Margin into and from such foreign currency at a rate of exchange determined by Long Asia on the basis of the then prevailing money market rates.

8.2 In such circumstances, Long Asia will not be liable to the Client for any loss suffered by the Client or any third party as a result of such action (although, Long Asia will use reasonable endeavors to only convert such funds as may reasonably be required to cover the position in respect of the relevant transaction).

8.3 If Long Asia receives or recovers any amount in respect of any of the Client's obligations in a currency other than that in which such amount was payable, whether pursuant to a judgment of any court or otherwise, the Client will indemnify and hold Long Asia harmless from and against any cost (including costs of conversion and loss suffered by Long Asia as a result of receiving such amount in a currency other than the currency in which it was due).

9. MARGIN DEPOSITS AND COLLATERAL

9.1 As a condition of entering a margined transaction, Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion require the deposit of funds or other collateral acceptable to Long Asia as security for payment of any losses incurred by the Client in respect of the transaction ("Initial Margin"). Initial Margin is due and payable immediately as a condition to opening the relevant margined transaction and Long Asia may decline to open any margined transaction if the Client does not have sufficient available cash in the account to satisfy the Initial Margin required for that transaction at the time the relevant order is placed.

9.2 Margin requirements may be set and varied without prior notice from time to time at Long Asia's sole and absolute discretion including without limitation subsequent variation of any margin rates set at the time that a margined transaction is opened ("Variation Margin" together with Initial Margin, collectively, "Margin").

9.3 Margin shall be provided by or on behalf of the Client in cash to Long Asia as determined by Long Asia in our sole and absolute discretion. You must inform Long Asia immediately if you cannot, or believe you will not be able to, meet a Margin payment when due. The Client must maintain in the account, at all times, sufficient funds to meet all Margin requirements. Long Asia is not obliged to make Margin call warnings to the Client at all or within any specific period.

9.4 Long Asia may require payment of Margin by the Client via immediate electronic funds transfer or any other method acceptable to Long Asia. Only funds received net of any bank charges, which relate to the transfer, will be credited as paid.

9.5 If there is insufficient Margin in the Client's account or if the deposited Margin is insufficient to meet the required Margin rates, as determined by Long Asia in accordance with Section 9.2 above, Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion choose to close or terminate the Client's margined transaction immediately, without notice to the Client. Subject to Sections 9.6 and 9.9 below, this will not constitute an Event of Default (as defined in Section 18.1 below). If Long Asia chooses not to close or terminate the Client's margined transaction, Long Asia may make a Margin call warning in accordance with Section 9.7.

9.6 Without prejudice to the foregoing, any transaction entered by the Client or on the Client's behalf that results in there being insufficient Margin to cover any actual or anticipated losses or liabilities in connection with the Client's account will constitute an Event of Default and Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion exercise our rights in Section 18 below, whether there has been a Margin call warning or not.

9.7 Notwithstanding the fact that Long Asia is not obliged to make Margin call warnings prior to liquidating the Client's margined transactions, if the Client fails to maintain sufficient funds to meet the Margin requirements, Margin call warnings may be made at any time by telephone, telephone answering machine message, voice mail, letter, fax, e-mail or any other means of electronic communication. Therefore, you must notify Long Asia immediately and provide alternative contact details to ensure Margin call warnings can be made if you are not contactable at your usual contact details provided, e.g. when you are traveling or on holiday. Any Margin call warnings Long Asia makes of the Client may be made by any method of communication listed above. Long Asia shall be deemed to have made a Margin call warning if Long Asia notifies you electronically via email. Long Asia shall not be liable for any failure to contact the Client or attempt to contact the Client.

9.8 Should Long Asia decide to make a Margin call warning, the terms and conditions of the Margin call warning will be detailed within the Margin call warning and Long Asia reserves the right to change the terms and conditions of any Margin call warning based on market conditions, without notice to the Client. If Long Asia makes a Margin call warning, in no way does this waive the right to liquidate the Client's margined transactions as detailed in Section 9.5 above.

9.9 Any payment made by the Client in satisfaction of a Margin call warning must be received by Long Asia within the time specified within the Margin call warning. Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion close or terminate your margined transactions immediately without notice to you and decline to enter into any further margined transactions with you if you fail to honour any Margin call warnings and this shall constitute an Event of Default. Long Asia may exercise our rights in Section 18.

9.10 Title in and ownership of a portion or all of the money the Client deposits with Long Asia shall be transferred to Long Asia to the extent it represents an amount necessary to secure the Client's open positions or cover the Client's actual or future contingent or prospective obligations (which will be calculated daily in Long Asia's sole and absolute discretion based on the Client's daily open positions and trading and which may be greater than the Margin required to maintain the open positions, as market conditions may dictate) such that the Client will not have a proprietary claim over that portion or any of the Client's money deposited and Long Asia can deal with it on our own right.

9.11 When money received by Long Asia from the Client is no longer required to secure the Client's open positions or cover the Client's actual or future contingent or prospective obligations to Long Asia, full title and ownership of the remaining money will be transferred back to the Client.

9.12 As a continuing security for the performance of all the Client's obligations (whether actual or contingent, present or future) to Long Asia under or pursuant to this Agreement ("Secured Obligations"), the Client grants to Long Asia, with full title guarantee, a first fixed security interest in all non-cash Margin now or in the future provided by the Client to Long Asia or to our order or under our direction or control or that of an exchange or market or otherwise standing to the credit of the Client's account under this Agreement or otherwise held by Long Asia or our affiliated companies or our nominees on the Client's behalf.

9.13 The Client agrees to execute such further documents and to take such further steps as Long Asia may reasonably require to perfect our security interest over, be registered as the owner of or obtain legal title to the Margin, secure further the Secured Obligations, enable Long Asia to exercise our rights or to satisfy any market requirement.

9.14 The Client may not withdraw or substitute any property subject to our security interest without our consent, which Long Asia may grant or withhold in our sole and absolute discretion.

9.15 The Client undertakes neither to create nor to have outstanding any security interest whatsoever over nor to agree to assign or transfer, any of the Margin transferred to Long Asia, except a lien routinely imposed on all securities in a clearing system in which such securities may be held.

9.16 Long Asia may, free of any adverse interest of the Client or any other person, grant a security interest over Margin provided by the Client to cover any of our obligations to an intermediate broker market or exchange, including obligations owed by the positions held by Long Asia or another of our Clients.

9.17 If an Event of Default occurs, Long Asia may exercise the power to sell all or any part of the Margin. Long Asia may apply the proceeds of sale or other disposals in paying the costs of such sale or other disposal and in or towards satisfaction of the Secured Obligations.

9.18 In addition and without prejudice to any rights that Long Asia may be entitled under this Agreement or all Applicable Regulations, Long Asia shall have a general lien on all property held by Long Asia or our affiliates or our nominees on the Client's behalf until the satisfaction of the Secured Obligations.

9.19 Any action taken by Long Asia in connection with or pursuant to a margined transaction by Long Asia at a time at which any Event of Default has occurred (whether Long Asia has knowledge thereof) shall be entire without prejudice to our right to refuse any further performance thereafter, and shall not in any circumstances be considered as a waiver of that right or as a waiver of any other rights of Long Asia's should any such Event of Default have occurred.

10. SECURITY

10.1 All funds, securities, commodities, currencies, and other property belonging to the Client that Long Asia or our affiliates may at any time be holding for the Client (either individually, jointly with another, or as a guarantor of the account of any other person) or that may at any time be in Long Asia or their possession or control or carried on Long Asia or them for any purpose, including safekeeping, are to be held by Long Asia as security and subject to a general lien and right of set-off for any of the Client's liabilities to Long Asia under this Agreement whether or not we have made advances in connection with such funds, securities, commodities, currencies or other property, and irrespective of the number of accounts the Client may have with Long Asia. Long Asia may, in our sole and absolute discretion and without notice to the Client, apply and/or transfer any or all funds or other property belonging to the Client between any of the Client's accounts with Long Asia.

10.2 Without prejudice to any other rights to which Long Asia may be entitled, we may at any time and without notice to the Client set off any amounts (whether actual or contingent, present or future) at any time owing between Long Asia and the Client. Furthermore, as a continuing security for the performance of all the Client's Secured Obligations, the Client grants to Long Asia, with full title guarantee, a first fixed security interest in all funds, securities, commodities, currencies and other property now or in the future provided by the Client to Long Asia or to our order or under our direction or control or otherwise standing to the credit of the Client's account under this Agreement or otherwise held by Long Asia or our affiliated companies or our nominees on behalf of the Client. You agree that you shall be able to apply such funds, securities, commodities, currencies, and other property in or towards satisfaction of all or any part of the Secured Obligations that are due and payable to Long Asia but unpaid.

17. CONSENT TO DIRECT CONTACT

17.1 The Client accepts that Long Asia, for the purpose of marketing financial services and products, may, from time to time, make direct contact with the Client by telephone and/or means of electronic communication. The Client agrees to such communications and agrees that the Client will not consider such communication a breach of any of the Client's rights under any relevant data protection and/or privacy regulations.

17.2 The Client accepts that Long Asia, for the purpose of compliance, shall have the right to request any information or documentation reasonably required and the Client shall be obliged to provide the same to Long Asia immediately.

18. EVENT OF DEFAULT/NETTING

18.1 An "Event of Default" shall occur if at any time:

- a. The Client fails to comply fully and immediately with any obligation to make any payment or to make or take delivery of any property when due to or required by the Company;
- b. The Client defaults in any other obligation or commits any breach of any other obligations under this Agreement (including any transaction governed by this Agreement), including but not limited to, any call for Margin;
- c. any representation or warranty made by the Client was or has become or subsequently would if repeated at any time be incorrect;

- e. Long Asia, acting in our sole and absolute discretion, determines that there is or has been an adverse change in the creditworthiness of any party providing a guarantee and/or indemnity in respect of the Client's obligations under this Agreement;
- f. Long Asia considers it necessary or desirable to prevent what we consider is or might be a violation of any applicable laws or regulations or good standard of market practice;
- g. You commence a voluntary case or other procedure seeking or proposing liquidation, reorganization, an arrangement or composition, a freeze or moratorium, or other similar relief with respect to your debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, regulatory, supervisory or similar law (including any other law with potential application to you, if insolvent), or seeking the appointment of a trustee, receiver, liquidator, conservator, administrator, custodian or other similar official (each an "Insolvency Officer") of you or any substantial part of your assets; or if you take any action to authorize any of the foregoing;
- h. an involuntary case or other procedure is commenced against the Client seeking or proposing liquidation, reorganization, an arrangement or composition, a freeze or moratorium, or other similar relief with respect to your debts under any bankruptcy, insolvency, regulatory, supervisory or similar law (including any other law with potential application to you, if insolvent) or seeking the appointment of an Insolvency Officer of you or any substantial part of your assets;
- i. You are dissolved, or, if your capacity or existence is dependent upon a record in a formal register, the registration is removed or ends, or any procedures are commenced seeking or proposing your dissolution, removal from such a register, or the ending of such a registration;
- j. any credit support provider fails to comply with or perform any Agreement or obligation to be complied with or performed by the Client or it in accordance with the applicable credit support document;
- k. any credit support document expires or ceases to be in full force and effect prior to the satisfaction of all the Client's obligations under this Agreement, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company;
- l. any representation or warranty made or given or deemed made or given by any credit support provider pursuant to any credit support document proves to have been false or misleading in any material respect as at the time it was made or given or deemed made or given or any event referred to in this Section 18.1 occurs in respect of any credit support provider; or
- m. where you or your credit support provider is a partnership, any of the events referred to in this Section

18.1 occurs in respect of one or more of you or your partners.

18.2 Subject to Section 18.3 below, at any time following the occurrence of an Event of Default, Long Asia may, by notice to the Client, specify a day on which we will commence the termination and liquidation of transactions (the "Liquidation Date").

18.3 Unless Long Asia specifies otherwise, the date of the occurrence of any Event of Default shall automatically constitute a Liquidation Date ("Automatic Termination"), without the need for any notice by Long Asia and the provisions of Section 18.4 below shall then apply.

18.4 Upon the occurrence of a Liquidation Date:

- a. Long Asia shall not be obliged to make any further payments or deliveries under any transactions that would, but for this Section 18, have fallen due for performance on or after the Liquidation Date and such obligations shall be satisfied by settlement (whether by payment, set-off or otherwise) of the Liquidation Amount (as defined in Section 18.4(c) below);
- b. Long Asia shall (on, or as soon as reasonably practicable after, the Liquidation Date) determine (discounting if appropriate), in respect of each transaction or group of transactions referred to in Section 18.4 (a) above, our total cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain, in each case expressed in the currency specified by Long Asia ("Base Currency") and, if appropriate, including any loss of bargain, cost of funding or, without duplication, cost, loss or, as the case may be, gain as a result of the termination, liquidation, obtaining, performing or re-establishing of any hedge or related trading position as a result of the termination, pursuant to this Agreement, of each such transaction, including losses and costs (or gains) in respect of any payment or delivery required to be made under such transaction (assuming satisfaction of each applicable condition precedent) on or before the Liquidation Date and not made; and
- c. Long Asia shall treat each cost or loss to it, determined as above, as a positive amount and each gain by Long Asia, so determined, as a negative amount and aggregate all such amounts to produce a single, net positive or negative amount, denominated in the Base Currency (the "Liquidation Amount").

18.5 If the Liquidation Amount determined pursuant to Section 18.4 above is a positive amount, the Client shall pay it to Long Asia and if it is a negative amount, Long Asia shall pay it to the Client. Long Asia shall notify the Client of the Liquidation Amount, and by whom it is payable, promptly after the calculation of such amount.

18.6 The Liquidation Amount shall be paid in the Base Currency by the close of business on the business day following the completion of the termination and liquidation under Section 18.4 above (converted as required by Applicable Regulations into any other currency, any costs of such conversion to be borne by the Client, and (if applicable) deducted from any payment to the Client). Any Liquidation Amount not paid on the due date shall be treated as an unpaid amount and bear interest, at the rate of one tenth of a percent (0.1%) per day or as otherwise may be reasonably determined by Long Asia to be the cost of funding such overdue amount (or such lesser amount as may be permitted by Applicable Regulations). Interest will accrue on a daily basis and will be due and payable by the Client as a separate debt.

18.7 For the purposes of any calculation hereunder, Long Asia may convert amounts denominated in any other currency into the Base Currency at such rate prevailing at the time of the calculation as we shall reasonably select.

18.8 Long Asia shall not be obliged to make any payment or delivery scheduled to be made by Long Asia under a transaction for as long as an Event of Default or a potential Event of Default with respect to the Client has occurred and is continuing.

18.9 Long Asia rights under this Section 18 are in addition to, and not in limitation or exclusion of, any other rights that Long Asia may have under this Agreement or otherwise whether by agreement or operation of law. In particular and without prejudice to the provisions of Sections 18.2 - 18.8 above, Long Asia is authorized and entitled, without notification to the Client and in our sole and absolute discretion to take such action as we deem necessary, expedient or desirable, to protect our own position, including without limitation, one or more of the following actions (whether in whole or in part):

- A. close out or give instructions to close out all or any of the Client's open positions;
- B. perform, cancel or if applicable abandon any of the Client's open positions;
- C. borrow, buy, sell, mortgage, charge or otherwise dispose of any or all investments, monies or other assets that the Client may have requested Long Asia to enter into or hold with or for the Client or other property of any type held or carried for the Client (whether entered into or held as security for the Client's obligations to Long Asia hereunder or otherwise) or purchase or borrow any or all investments or other assets;
- D. satisfy any obligation that the Client may have to Long Asia, either directly or by way of guarantee or surety ship, out of any of the Client's investments, monies or other assets in Long Asia's custody or control; and
- E. cancel any or all outstanding orders or contracts or any other commitments made with or for the Client.

18.10 Any of the above actions in Section 18.9 may be taken without demand for Margin or additional Margin, and regardless of whether the relevant investments or transactions that Long Asia may have executed or arranged with, or for the Client, are solely the Client's or held jointly with others. In liquidating any long or short positions Long Asia may, at our sole and absolute discretion, sell or purchase in the same contract month or initiate new long or short positions in order to establish a spread or straddle that in our sole and absolute judgment is necessary or advisable to protect existing positions on the Client's account. In all cases, a prior demand by Long Asia, or notice of the time and place of a sale or purchase, shall not constitute a waiver of our rights to sell or buy without demand or notice as herewith provided. You will at all times be liable for the payment of any debit balance on your account and you will be liable for any deficiency remaining on your account in the event of the liquidation thereof in whole or in part by either party. If the proceeds realized pursuant to this authorization are insufficient for the payment of all liabilities due to Long Asia from the Client, the Client must and will promptly pay on demand the deficit and all unpaid liabilities together with overdue interest.

Long Asia has not solicited, or in any other way recommended, Client's participation in the Trading Platform. The Client has made inquiries and conducted research into the Trading Platform sufficient to make an informed investment decision. Long Asia cannot imply or guarantee that you will make a profit from your use of the Trading Platform. Long Asia will not be held responsible for the Trading Platform's performance or trading losses incurred in the Client's account because of trading pursuant to the Trading Platform.

Long Asia will only be responsible for using our commercially reasonable efforts to execute, in a timely fashion, the trade orders and trade details generated by the Trading Platform. Long Asia shall not be responsible for any error or malfunction of the Trading Platform, mechanical or communication line failure, system errors, data failure or any other causes beyond our control. Long Asia can accept and execute orders only if actually received or generated and then on a "not held" basis (i.e. Long Asia shall not be held responsible for the execution of the order at the price indicated or otherwise)

- c. The Client has had the opportunity to ask questions on how Client's account will be handled and acknowledges that the Client has not purchased the Trading Platform from Long Asia. Neither Long Asia nor any of our officers, directors, employees, consultants, agents or affiliates will be held liable for any act or omission during or in connection with the Client's use of the Trading Platform. The Client shall indemnify Long Asia, our officers, directors, employees, agents, affiliates, successor and/or assigns from all losses and/or liability (including reasonable attorney's and/or accountant's fees) incurred or resulting from use of the Trading Platform, provided that there has been no judicial determination that such liability was the result of fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct by Long Asia, and further provided that the conduct that was the basis for such liability was not undertaken in the actual and reasonable belief that it was in the best interest of the Client's account.

25. INSTRUCTIONS AND TRANSACTIONS

25.1 Unless otherwise agreed by Long Asia, all dealing instructions must be given to Long Asia electronically through the Client's Trading Platform.

25.2 A dealing instruction given by the Client shall not take effect until actually received by the Company. In the absence of fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct on the Company's part, the Company shall be entitled to act on the behalf of the Client upon instruction given or purporting to be given by the Client or any other person on the Client's behalf without further inquiry as to the genuineness, authority or identity of any such person giving or purporting to give such instructions.

25.3 Long Asia may, in our sole and absolute discretion, refuse to accept any dealing instructions from the Client but will endeavour to notify the Client of any such refusal, without giving any reasons, promptly following receipt of the Client's instructions. In addition, a dealing instruction that for any reason is not received by Long Asia in a manner in which it can be processed shall be deemed rejected by us.

25.4 Long Asia may cancel any instructions previously given by the Client provided that Long Asia has not acted on the Client's instructions. Neither Long Asia, our affiliates, nor any of their directors, officers, employees and agents shall be liable for any loss or damage (including direct, indirect or consequential loss or loss of profits) suffered by the Client or any third party in connection any action or inaction under this Section, except to the extent that such loss or damage results directly from their fraud, gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

26. SETTLEMENT DATE, ROLLOVER AND OFFSET INSTRUCTIONS

26.1 Long Asia will automatically roll over all open positions on the Client's account to the following business day based on the rollover schedule. The Client will be responsible for any debit or credits to the Client's account subject to current market rates. Long Asia may charge the Client a fee in respect of each such position that is rolled over.

26.2 In the absence of timely instructions from the Client, Long Asia is authorized, at our sole and absolute discretion, to rollover or offset all or any portion of the currency positions in the Client's accounts or to make or receive delivery on the Client's behalf upon such terms and by such methods deemed reasonable by Long Asia in our sole and absolute discretion.

26.3 For the avoidance of doubt, Long Asia will not arrange delivery of currencies unless Long Asia deems it necessary pursuant to Section 26.2 above, or if Long Asia otherwise agree in writing with the Client. Similarly, unless such arrangements have been made by Long Asia any currency positions that settle shall do so by credit or debit to the Client's account with Long Asia.

27. LEVERAGE

27.1 You may set leverage that may range from 1:1 to 1:500 upon opening an account, and you may send a request to amend the leverage level, through the registered email address with the MetaTrader 4 trading account.

27.3 The Company will endeavor to notify the Client of any changes in the leverage levels. However, Long Asia reserves the right to change the leverage of the trading account with immediate effect without giving prior notice.

27.4 Long Asia may also vary or change the leverage levels of the financial instruments with immediate effect, at our discretion.

27.5 The Company is entitled to apply new Margin requirements to new positions and to the positions which are already open.

28. PRICES AND OPEN POSITIONS

28.1 Long Asia will provide the Client with "bid" and "offer" prices in respect of currencies through the MetaTrader 4 Trading Platform. The prices that Long Asia quote are prices based on prices received from various market participants and may or may not be marked up or marked down from inter-bank spreads by the liquidity provider or by Long Asia. Long Asia does not represent that prices provided reflect inter-bank spreads.

28.2 Each price shall be effective and may be used in a dealing instruction prior to the earlier of its expiration time and the time, if any, at which it is otherwise withdrawn by us. A price may not be used in a dealing instruction after such time. Each price shall be available for use in a dealing instruction for a transaction with a principal amount not to exceed a maximum determined by Long Asia. The Client acknowledge that these prices and maximum amounts may differ from prices and maximum amounts provided to other clients of Long Asia's and may be withdrawn or changed without notice.

28.3 Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion and without prior notice to the Client immediately cease to provide prices in some or all currency pairs and for some or all value dates at any time.

28.4 Long Asia's service is restricted to executing transactions at the quoted prices at the Client's request. When executing transactions Long Asia will not be executing orders on the Client's behalf and accordingly Long Asia will not be subject to any obligation to take reasonable steps to obtain the best possible result for the Client.

28.5 Long Asia may combine the Client's orders with orders of our own account or the account of our affiliates or with those of other clients. By aggregating the Client's orders with those of other clients, Long Asia must reasonably believe that it is unlikely that the aggregation would work overall to the disadvantage of those clients. However, the effect of the aggregation may operate on some occasions to the Client's disadvantage in relation to a particular order. Long Asia may fill the Client's orders for a portion of the principal amount specified in the dealing instruction. In such event, the unfilled portion of the order shall remain in effect until withdrawn, cancelled or executed.

28.6 Long Asia may require the Client to limit the number of open positions that the Client may have through Long Asia at any time. Long Asia may in our sole and absolute discretion close out any one or more transactions to ensure that such positions limits are maintained.

28.7 Long Asia reserve the right to refuse to honour transactions if it:

- i. affects the orderly function of the market;
- ii. constitutes an abusive exploitation of privileged confidential information;
- iii. contributes to the laundering of illegal funds;
- iv. affects in any manner the reliability or orderly operation of the Trading Platform(s); and,
- v. relates to the purchase of a financial instrument but there is insufficient free Margin in the relevant trading account to cover such purchase and any applicable charges.

28.8 Long Asia reserves the right to refuse the execution of a pending order and/or modify the opening/closing price of an order if a technical or other error occurs.

28.9 The Client accepts that Long Asia may refuse to execute an instruction for trading financial instruments.

28.10 The Client accepts that if Long Asia were to refuse the execution of the Client's order, the obligations of the Client under this Agreement shall remain unaffected.

31.1 Long Asia complies with AML standards as set out by our Prime Brokers and Liquidity Providers. This include internal policies, procedures and controls to deter, detect, and report suspicious activity.

Long Asia therefore will request the Client provide certified documentation to Long Asia at account opening.

31.3 Suspicious transactions will be investigated and reported to the appropriate authorities.

32. GENERAL

32.1 The provision of the Company's services to the Client is subject to all applicable laws, regulations and other provisions or market practices to which Long Asia are subject (collectively, the "Applicable Regulations"). If any conflict arises between this Agreement and any Applicable Regulations, the latter shall prevail. Long Asia is not required to do anything or refrain from doing anything that would infringe any Applicable Regulations and may do whatever Long Asia consider necessary to comply with them.

32.2 If any provision of this Agreement shall be found by any court or administrative body of competent jurisdiction to be invalid or unenforceable, such invalidity or unenforceability shall not affect the other provisions of this Agreement, which shall remain in full force and effect.

32.3 Any failure by Long Asia (whether continued or not) to insist upon strict compliance with any provision hereof shall not constitute nor be deemed to constitute a waiver by Long Asia of any of our rights or remedies. The rights and remedies conferred upon Long Asia hereby shall be cumulative and the exercise or waiver of any part thereof shall not preclude or inhibit the exercise of any other additional rights and remedies.

32.4 Without the prior written consent of Long Asia, the Client may not assign, transfer or sublicense the Client's rights, duties, or obligations under this Agreement, whether by operation of law, merger or otherwise, to any person or entity, in whole or in part. Any attempt to do so without first obtaining such prior written consent shall be void and of no force and effect.

32.5 No action, regardless of form, arising out of or in connection this Agreement, or otherwise existing between the parties, may be brought by a party more than two (2) years after the cause of action is discovered. Discovery of action must be reported within two (2) years of termination of this Agreement. 32.6 Long Asia may record the telephone conversations with the Client and such recordings may be used in evidence in any dispute arising in connection with any transactions under this Agreement.

32.7 No person who is not a party to this Agreement may enforce any term of this Agreement.

32.8 This Agreement is supplied in English, and Long Asia will communicate with the Client mainly in English during the Company's relationship with the Client.

32.9 This Agreement is written in the English and Chinese languages and both languages shall have equal validity. If there are any conflicts or inconsistencies between the English version and the Chinese version, the English version shall be the governing and prevailing version.

SCHEDULE A – HIGH RISK INVESTMENT NOTICE Trading currencies involves substantial risk that is not suitable for everyone. Trading on-line, no matter how convenient or efficient, does not necessarily reduce risks associated with currency trading.

In addition to standard industry disclosures contained in this Agreement, the Client should be aware that margined currency and derivatives trading is one of the riskiest forms of investment and is only suitable for sophisticated individuals and institutions. Prices in margined currency trading and other derivatives are highly volatile.

Furthermore an account with Long Asia permits the Client to trade foreign currencies on a highly-leveraged basis (which may be up to approximately 100 times the Client's account equity or as otherwise permitted by applicable regulation). For example, a deposit of USD 1,000 may enable the Client to take a maximum position with USD 100,000 notional market value.

The use of leverage can increase your return on investment (ROI), but in an adverse market, you may incur losses exceeding your deposits. Given the possibility of losing an entire investment, speculation in the foreign exchange market should only be conducted with risk capital funds that if lost will not significantly affect the Client's personal or institution's financial wellbeing.

If the Client has pursued only conservative forms of investment in the past, the Client should study currency trading further before continuing an investment of this nature. You could lose all funds the Client deposits, the Initial Margin as well as substantial amounts of capital when trading currencies or currency options, if the market goes against your investment. You may also be liable for losses that exceed the amount of Margin you posted. If you wish to continue with the investment, you hereby confirm that the funds you have committed are purely risk capital and loss of the investment will not jeopardize your style of living nor will it detract you from your future retirement program. Additionally, the Client fully understands the nature and risks of currency and currency options investments, and the Client's obligations to others will not be neglected should the Client suffer investment losses.
